Dear All

Thank you to everyone who submitted entries to the 7th Annual Photography Competition. We received almost 1000 photographs this year and the range of subjects was diverse and eclectic.

This catalogue includes the top 100 photographs. Choosing both the top 100 and winners has been a particularly difficult task this year but, as always, the guiding principles were to include more photographs from boys than from family members and staff, and to only accept one entry from each individual into the final 100.

Sadly, it was not possible to include everyone, but this year I have also included (on the final pages of the catalogue) the 50 photographs that just missed the cut, sometimes simply because all entry details were not supplied or the resolution was too low. Entrants who are disappointed not to be included must remember...there is always next year!

Many thanks again to everyone for their participation and support.

Kind regards,

Simon Roderick
